

JANE AUSTEN BEGAN TO WRITE POEMS, STORIES, AND PLAYS FOR HER OWN AND HER FAMILY'S AMUSEMENT WHEN SHE WAS YOUNG!
WHY DON'T YOU GIVE IT A TRY? OBSERVE THE IMAGES, AND SEE IF YOU CAN COME UP WITH YOUR OWN SCENE BY FILLING IN THE SPEECH BALLOONS.

www.duniathcomics.com

JASP Presents: An Austen Coloring Contest!

For more information on The Jane Austen Summer Program, visit <https://www.janeaustensummer.org>

Submission and Contest Rules on back!

Pencil to Paper

An Austen Coloring Contest

- Submit your child's decorated coloring sheets for a chance to win an age-appropriate prize!
- All submissions posted to JASP's Online Gallery!
- Participants must be 12 and under.
- Questions? Email iza711@unc.edu.

SUBMISSIONS (All must fill out contact information)

Artist's Name*: _____

Artist's Age*: _____

Parent's Email*: _____

Parent's Phone: _____

I would not like to be added to the JASP mailing list.

*Required

Option One: Library Drop-Box.

Drop this form into the library's submission box!

Option Two: Mail us your art!

Jane Austen Summer Program,
C/o Department of English and Comparative Literature
UNC-CH CB# 3520
Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3520

Option Three: Online Submission

Upload a photo with this online form!

Special thanks to Georgie Castillo for designing these coloring sheets! For more of Georgie's work, visit

<https://www.duniathcomics.com/>

JASP is a four-day symposium exploring Jane Austen through lectures, workshops, small-group discussions and other activities. Our 2023 theme is Austen's teenage writings. Register today at <https://www.janeaustensummer.org/>!